

4 Days | National Quartet Convention

Pigeon Forge, Tennessee

GREATER VISION WILL PERFORM

ENJOY THE GOSPEL MUSIC OF BOOTH BROTHERS

BE ENTERTAINED WITH MUSIC FROM THE HOPPERS

The National Gospel Quartet Convention is being held in Pigeon Forge, TN. The Leconte Center will host this annual event featuring the very best that Gospel Music has to offer.

The Convention was founded by the late J.D. Sumner, a bass singer remembered primarily for his ability to hit those lowest notes! Held in Louisville, KY, for 20 years, the convention moved to Pigeon Forge in 2014, just a few hours away!

You can count on hearing excellent inspirational speakers and many of the most popular groups in the industry such as: the Isaacs, Booth Brothers, Kingdom Heirs, Collingsworth Family, Greater Vision, the Hoppers, Dr. David Jeremiah, Jason Crabb, Gold City, the McKameys, and a host of others.
